Abstract:

Women are powerful change agents in society, as they not only carry with them the willingness to lead but to lead with emotions and empathy. When given the right opportunity, Women in leadership roles including social, Political, economic, cultural and religious spheres, the role of women are well recognized. In these areas, they are capable of effectively participating because they have effective skills and abilities.

At the outset, I would like to discuss the main points in this study regarding the role of women. Today all over the world. It is important to note that the very analysis of the word “ Women’ shows that the first part of I,e, ‘wo’ indicates a female while the latter part of it. I,e, ‘man’ refers to a male. Hence There is no iota of doubt that a women is made for a man. Not with standing this, we cannot turn nelson’s eye towards the fact that there are some fundamental differences between a man and a women physiologically, physically and biologically.

Women have been making significant contributions in several fields such as in agricultural labor force, health care, the entertainment world, the cosmetics industry and there by going a long way in helping the development of nations. At time, they even surpass men while working with them hand in hand. Their contribution regarding keeping the family and nations stable cannot be set aside. Apart from this, all over the world women belonging to every community play an important role in taking care of elder and children. They educate kids in their family and motivate them for study well. Both in the urban and rural areas, women participate in economic work force like construction. They also assist in academic activities and in taking care of the health of others and so on.

Key Words: Societies, Women, Economic sector, Mother,

Introductions:

Women! Yes, women! They are very important to the prosperity of the world. Countless research paper have been written discussing how the many problems that women face in the world limit how much they can contribute to the prosperity of the world. It is a no-brainer that the gender that makes up half of the world has so much to offer when there are no impediment stopping them. In this article, I hope to share why women are important to the prosperity of the world, some of the problems limiting them and how we can all play our part in making sure we have a better world. Many of the points in this article are from research carried out by prestigious institutions like the UN & Mckinsey. In many countries, different laws and policies make it difficult for women to achieve their potential. This is even worse in countries where there is little or no political representation for women.

“Napoleon said, “Give me good mothers and I will give you a good nation.” Women are the cornerstone to the quality and sustainable growth of a family, which builds a healthy society. They play different roles as a head, a director, a family income manager and last but not least, a mother”.

This means that if women can provide instruction, they can contribute to good academic results. Women are the nation's founders. Women, including half of the world's population, attach great importance to Indian culture.

Women have significant roles to play within society.

Women are the primary caretakers of children and elders in every country of the world. International studies demonstrate that when the economy and political organization of a society change, women take the lead in helping the family adjust to new realities and challenges. Women are the backbone of families and communities. They provide care, support, and nurturing to their families and are essential to the development of children. Women also play a significant role in community building and often take on leadership roles in community organizations. Here is some common role of Females like:

As a Daughter: When a girl is born, she carries a fresh sense to her parent’s existence. Many ambitions and vision create approach once the off spring is born in a house. It is relatively a general faith that a daughter concerns for her people additional than a son would see to. And it is accurate to a degree. Females are extra thoughtful and kind, particularly once it derives to links and associations.

As a Sister: As a sister a lady provides adoration and cordiality to her brothers and sister. It drives deprived of starting that specific standards and ethics are not genetic or altered, They are natural qualities those arise as portion and section of existing as a women. To possess a sister, who performs as a comrade and a sister also, is such a charm for any brother. Older sister can be positive role models and teacher for their younger siblings.

They can help younger siblings learn about many things, including romantic relationships and sexuality development.

As a Wife: When a guy carries a bride to her new home, he is permanently guessing that he has acquired a spouse for lifetime who is stretching to every inch to render her life content and pleased. Every so often, in undertaking so many whiles her individual visions may get surrendered, but that drives shorn of grievance. A woman is a helper, wife and companion of a man. As the household manager and leader: For everyday family to prosper, a well-ordered disciplined family is important. This is the role of the woman in the family. She is the health officer for her family.

She organizes everything in such a fashion that every member has adequate food, adequate sleep and adequate leisure. Family Revenue Manager, The woman behaves as the humble family income boss; it is up to her to ensure maximum return from each penny spent. The woman plays the role in the family as a wife, a partner, an organizer, a director, a re-creator, a distributor, a manager and a disciplinary. In addition, women also play a key role in society's socio-economic development.

As a Daughter in law: With the marital lifetime, arises a different character. To stand as daughter of a newfangled appointed parents. And she holds this single up with the corresponded affection and concern. She extends a phase forward and admits as her individual parents and overwhelming with devoutness to them. She takes care of them in elderly age and satisfies the empty space in their lives.

As a Mother: When she turns into a mother, she yields a new beginning in the shape of her own children. For reason that she leads perceiving a new life cycle just after the establishment. The woman in the family performs the entire responsibility of child birth and much of child rising. She is the child's first teacher. She transmits the child's social patrimony. She turns into the counselor, the friend, the theorist and the leader too.

As a Mother in law: Than arises a period when she marries off her valued assets, her children, and grow into a mother in law, open heartedly welcoming new add-ons to the house and encouraging them a home just similar the one they were offered goodbye to. Traditionally, a mother in law is seen as the matriarch of the family, responsible for maintaining family traditions and passing down wisdom and advice to her children and grandchildren. However, in modern times, the role of a mother in law has evolve to be mentor and friend to her daughter in law.

As a Grandmother: As she grows older, she yields up a fresh role of developing a grandparent to the latest of the family, her grandchildren. Instants expanded clustered near to our granny, hearing to her tales, while ingesting the lovely treats she cooks for us resides engraved in our thoughts constantly.

As a Friend: It is a technically verified the point that a female's physique is armed with hormones that mark her extra delicate and emotive, than a man. This is what creates a female a superior associate. The talent to connect and examine a circumstance sympathetically creates it informal to undertake life, expressly when it derives to associates.

Conclusion:

Today, most people think of working women as independent when we speak about women's empowerment but empowered women are those who decide to remain or have to remain at home to play the part of a wife, daughter-in-law, and mother. They are the start of growth. They are the ones without whom a man cannot go to work. It is by the support of a mother who lives at home that society works, the country develops. Her various unpaid and unknown works are the cause of the development of every society. In the world there are two prominent gender males and Females. Both the genders are different both physically and mentally. In the history ladies were considered as a thing. Women in had almost no right. But now things are moving towards the positive direction. We need to know the role of women in life and its importance.
